Thanks to Kevan Cornwall, Alan Paton, Steve Stretton and Nigel Hains who set out the trial, also Ian C the landowner for wielding a chainsaw to assist with the sections. Nigel a recent member offered to help and was called up last minute when 2 others were ill disposed. A lot of help with clearing up also made the job much quicker, thank you all.

Our experts were otherwise engaged so setting out was a bit less work than usual, with a few fallen trees adding some new interest. Section 4 into the stream and Section 8 also into the stream and down a steep bank took most of the marks, much to the chagrin of Sam R who almost showed us a swimming lesson on his last lap! Good to see a few visitors and more sporadic members riding too, looking competent if a little rusty from the scores! Charlie S tried the blue route and was 20 marks worse off as he had to leave with 4 sections Red route and kept Adam on his toes. Lovely weather also helped to make the event more enjoyable. Our next trial will be on Good Friday, 11.00 am start most likely. Watch out for the information on our website or facebook.
